

Making Connections – Activity Bingo

What to do:

The person on the inside or outside can start this game. This person should try to finish as many boxes as you can in the next one or two weeks. When you finish one, put a check in that box. When you have a straight line of checked boxes (either up and down, side to side, or corner to corner), you have a “Bingo”. This is a fun way to get to know someone better. Once one person finishes, the other person can play.

When you are done, talk about what you did with the other person. You can start with:

- What was your favourite thing?
- Did it go like you thought it would?
- What was the worst thing?
- Where there any surprises?
- Can you think of any other things you would like to do?

Try a new food	Jump up and down 10 times	Brush your teeth with your other hand	Listen to a new type of music	Tell someone a joke
Read something new	Try a new dance move	Write down 10 things you are happy about	Go for a walk	Describe your favourite place to someone
Think of a something you would like to learn	Do something nice for someone	Free Space	Make up a new word	Think about the words to your favourite song
Clean your space	Think about how you feel about the person you are playing bingo with	Try a new exercise	Tell someone about your favourite food	Learn ‘hello’ in a new language
Make up a rhyme	Ask 3 people how their day is going	Talk to someone new	Make a list of your favourite things	Think of a goal for this year
