

Making Connections – Finish This Sentence

This activity lets an adult and a child share what they like and dislike and lets them get to know one another better.

Age: An adult can play with a young child as partners. Older children can play by themselves.

When: This activity can be done on the phone, through the mail or in person.

What to do: The adult and the child can both play this activity by simply filling in the blanks on the activity sheet with the first thing that comes into their head to 'finish the sentence'.

I feel good about _____.

I am going to try to _____.

I am afraid of _____.

Today I learned _____.

When I grow up, I want to be _____.

I wish I could stop _____.

Sometimes I worry that _____.

I miss _____.

My favourite hobby is _____.

My favourite food is _____.

I wish I knew how to _____.

Why this is helpful: A game like this opens up the conversation for both the adult and the child. This can help both understand each other's fears, hopes, and accomplishments and can encourage each other to be support one another's answers. Both the adult and the child can keep playing by using the back of this sheet to find new ways to 'finish the sentence'.
